Armory a Scene of Beauty With Crowd of 1000 Attending-Decorative Scheme in White and Nile Green Carried Out With Rarely Artistic and Graceful Effect-Rev. Hugh Treanor Comes from Waterbury to Attend Annual Event of Catholic Woman's Club of His Former Parish.

JAMES F. FENTON Master of Ceremonies

The annual charity ball of the Cath-olic Woman's club of St. Patrick's parish, given on Friday evening at the armory, was marked with splendid success in the number attending and in all the other features which go to reward the hard work of those in charge of this annual event. With an estimated attendance of 1,000 people, the evening was also a brillion; social the evening was also a brilliant social occasion, and the decorative scheme carried out in white and Nile green made the big drill shed a scene of remarkable beauty. White was the prevalent color, panelled off with Nile green, and a particularly graceful effect was achieved by baskets of flow Friday, Feb. 27—Bar meeting, short calendar and assignment of cases. On this date jury cases will probably be center wehe three swings of southern smilax with electric lights in which large dolls swung and showered down flowers on the grand marca.

At the front of the music stand was a large female figure gowned in green, and standing in a rose trimmed charlot from which she drove a team of 25 white doves. A pleasing change in the arrange ment was in having the word CHAR-ITY in electric lettering on the from of the boxes on the north side of the hall instead of on the orchestra stand as in other years. The box for the president was placed on the opposite side of the hall. The decorations, which elicited many compllments for their pretty effect, were under the charge of Morgan Cronin, and the electric work was by Messrs, McGrory and Walsh.
